Miller Harris says:

Tender is half of a pair of fragrances, created in response to Tender is the Night by F. Scott Fitzgerald. A scent of longing and seduction, Tender is contemplative and delicate. Unexpected freshness from sparkling pink pepper and green hyacinth, combines with an accord of ink and floralcy to inspire a reverie of black tulips. Fluffy pink clouds of peonies, luxuriant saffron, and the intensity of mauve stemmed roses. The lingering warmth of dusky storax and frankincense resins fuse with woods, musk and soft leather, creating a yearning and seductive trail.
