

THE PERFUME SOCIETY

DISCOVER · EXPLORE · ENJOY

St Giles - The Stylist

https://find-a-fragrance.com//api/perfume?perfume_id=11568

Perfumers / Noses

Bertrand Duchaufour

dress to impress
orange bigarade
beautiful aldehydes
eccentricity
tamarind
flair
rum elegant
Moroccan cedarwood
Virginia cedarwood
sleek
polished

Try it at:

Selfridges London
St Giles

Family: Fresh Aromatic

Concentration: Eau de parfum

Top notes: orange bigarade, aldehydes, rum

Heart notes: mango, tamarind, frankincense

Base notes: cedar, tobacco, vanilla

St Giles says:

People that can put clothes together are fascinating – it is a great talent. Some can throw on a pair of jeans and a white shirt and look a million dollars. The uber-stylish look at the world in a slightly different way, using clothes to communicate with their choice of fabric, cut and colour. They make the world more beautiful and interesting. This is a fragrance for them that is sleek, polished and a bit of a show-off - it stands out, not because it is loud but because it is beautifully put together. Chic, timeless and a trifle eccentric, as all great stylist's undoubtedly are!

The catwalk excitement that jumps from the bottle is bitter orange bigarade combined with the flashbulb glamour of aldehydes and the cleverly coordinated separates of rum and a mango accord! The heart is full of flair with sacred palo santo and frankincense plus the edgy haute couture bite of tamarind. An elegant base is conjured from two cedars from Morocco and Virginia, a smooth tobacco absolute, oakmoss, musk and a trim of vanilla cream. Sartorial splendour! Dress to impress...

