Floris says:

Honey Oud opens with a gourmand accord of English honey and vanilla which combine to add a velvet softness to the oud oil and accentuate the rose at the heart of this complex fragrance. The exclusive fragrance is created with oudh oil from a certified sustainable source of agarwood. This oil is among the most expensive in the perfumer's palette - with deep qualities found in no other oil. It is an opulent, deep sensual note that combines beautifully with rose and sandalwood.
